1 Purpose and Scope

- a) The Policy 'Progress and Intervention' ("Policy") has been designed to clarify for staff and students at Curtin College (the "College") how the College will meet its obligations under both the Higher Education Standards Framework (HESF) and the National Code.

1.1 Introduction

- a) Curtin College ("College"), as a registered higher education provider, is obliged to meet the requirements for progression and intervention as set out in Section 8.8 of the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 ("National Code") (see: National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 \(legislation.gov.au\))
- b) The Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2015, in Domain 1 (see: HESF Domain 1: Student participation and attainment | Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency \(teqsa.gov.au\)) also stipulates that the College must monitor and manage student progression and ensure appropriate provision is made for students at risk.
- c) The Policy endeavours to illustrate how these regulatory obligations will be managed.

1.2 Purpose

- a) The purpose of this Policy is to confirm that the College is aware of its regulatory obligations with respect to student progression and appropriate intervention strategies to enable students to fulfil course requirements.
- b) The Policy is designed to provide students and staff with clarity as to what is considered to be satisfactory course progress.
- c) The Policy sets out the College's 'Intervention Strategy' for students at risk of not achieving satisfactory course progress.

1.3 Scope

- a) This Policy has been prepared in accordance with relevant legislation as noted in 1.1 a) and b) above as well as the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 (see link: Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 \(legislation.gov.au\)).
- b) The Policy therefore sets out how the Company complies with relevant legal standards and regulations regarding student progression and the use of intervention strategies to support students at risk.
- c) The Policy and Intervention Strategy applies equally to international and domestic students.

2 Policy Statement

- a) The College, as evidenced by this Policy, is focused on ensuring that all students are able to study in an environment that is supportive of their academic aspirations.
- b) The College monitors students' academic performance in each trimester and employs a detailed intervention strategy to identify, notify and assist students at risk of not meeting course progress requirements in sufficient time for those students to achieve satisfactory course progress.

- c) The Policy is intended to support the compliance with professional standards of practice as determined by the relevant regulatory authority/ies.
- d) Students are expected to:
  - i. Be familiar and comply with relevant College policies, procedures, course award requirements and unit outlines;
  - ii. Be genuine in their efforts to achieve passing grades;
  - iii. Engage with academic support offered by the College especially if academic performance falls below satisfactory academic performance requirements; and,
  - iv. Meet all expectations as set out in the learning contract that supports the student at risk process.
- e) The intervention strategy is attached to this Policy as Appendix 4: Curtin College Student at Risk Intervention Strategy.

2.1 Principles

    - ✓ Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples;
    - ✓ Students with special learning needs; and,
    - ✓ International students as required.
  - v. Early assessment and detection is essential to effective management of students at risk;
  - vi. Targeted support activities are important to ensure that support is relevant to the learning needs of the individual student at risk;
  - vii. All students are partners in the learning and teaching process and are therefore, responsible for their own course progress, including completing their course within the maximum allowable time;
  - viii. Appropriate learning and other support will be offered to students identified as at academic risk of not achieving satisfactory course progress;
  - ix. Student progress will be monitored and analysed on a trimester basis and results will be used to inform continuous improvement and included in quarterly reports to the Board of Directors and trimester reports to the Academic Board;
  - x. Appropriate information will be made available in a timely manner, to students identified as at academic risk of not achieving satisfactory course progress; and,
  - xi. The College will adhere to the principles of equity, consistency, transparency, procedural justice and procedural fairness, which will be observed in all matters relevant to student progress.

10 Appendix 4: Curtin College Student at Risk Register and Intervention Strategy

10.1 Introduction

- a) Curtin College hosts a diverse range of students with an equally diverse set of backgrounds and recognises therefore that inherent in its diversity is a wide range of causes for students to exhibit signs of being at risk of not meeting academic progression rates.
- b) The causes of poor academic performance are many but it is possible to draw sufficient common themes to suggest that factors such as those noted in the following list (note this is not an exhaustive list) may contribute to a student's 'at risk' potential:
  - i. Is the student an international student exhibiting language difficulties?
  - ii. Is the student a 'first-generation' higher education student?
  - iii. Is the student of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander heritage?
  - iv. Does the student have a declared learning disability?
  - v. Does the student have a declared physical disability?
  - vi. Is the student from a minority group such a LGBTQI++?
  - vii. Does the student have financial challenges?
  - viii. Is the student from a remote or isolated area and away from familial support structures?
- c) Clearly students from the College's population of subgroups as noted above, will not all always exhibit characteristics of a student at risk; however, the College recognises the need to consider a range of contributing factors into any intervention and support strategies for students at risk.
- d) In addition to factors noted in 9.1 b) above, the College has also noted that the following may be 'at-risk identifiers' or alerts:
  - i. Specific skill deficiency/ies e.g. not everyone is equally IT literate despite the pervasiveness of technology into every aspect of life as we know it;
  - ii. Low entry grades';
  - iii. Erratic academic background;
  - iv. High level of credit for recognised learning;
  - v. Poor reading, writing and numeracy skills;
  - vi. Poor time management skills;
  - vii. Inadequate problem-solving skills;
  - viii. Sleeping in class;
  - ix. Unsatisfactory attendance;
  - x. Mature age student returning to study after a considerable break;
  - xi. Failure to complete assessment on time;
  - xii. Record of breaching academic integrity rules and requirements;
  - xiii. Reluctance to engage in group activities; and,
  - xiv. Consistently poor assessment outcomes.

10.2 The Curtin College 'STaR' Intervention Plan – Guiding Concepts

- a) Curtin College has developed a student at risk process that is inclusive of academic and professional staff as well as student mentors, buddies and guides.
- b) The STaR is focused on the benefits of early intervention and analysis to ensure students at risk are identified early in each trimester, this in order to avoid delays in applying intervention strategies.

- c) The STaR programme incorporates student-focused strategies and college-wide activities.
- d) The management of 'students at risk' (STaR) is a collaborative and integrated effort across the College involving the Academic Director, the Manager of Academic and Student Services, the Counsellor, Program Managers, classroom Teachers and the Manager of Quality, Risk and Compliance.
- e) The collaborative approach is intended to ensure the College maximises every opportunity to provide support and encouragement to students who may be at risk of failing to meet the academic requirements for progression or who may opt to attrit to avoid ending up with a failed academic record.
- f) The STaR IP will use information collected during the application and enrolment process to identify students who may need early support as they adjust to study at the College.
- g) The Manager of Academic and Student Services will, with support from the Manager of Quality, Risk and Compliance, compile an initial register of students who may need support to adjust.
- h) The Student at Risk Register (SaRR) will be stored securely in a restricted access file in SharePoint and staff who need access will be informed by the Academic Director in a meeting convened specifically to advise key stakeholders of students who have been identified as potentially needing additional support and monitoring.
- i) Students identified early, receive a simple welcome letter from the College Director and Principal (CDP), thanking them for enrolling and reinforcing assistance and support options should they need to access these during the first three weeks of trimester. The letter will not address any notion of "at risk" status because it is likely that a good number of potential at risk students never actually become at risk.
- j) Information about assistance and support will be shared with all students at Orientation and will of course remain listed in the Portal.
- k) Academic staff will be provided with information (9.1 d) above) as to what 'flags' they need to be aware of as part of identifying students at risk as soon as possible.
- l) The conceptual framework is illustrated in Figure 1 below:

10.3 STaR Strategies and Activities

10.3.1 Monitoring Attendance

- a) Class attendance for Curtin College taught units is recorded for all students enrolled in Programs offered at Curtin College for monitoring purposes.
- b) As per the College Code of Conduct, Students are expected maintain an attendance rate of at least 80% in all units of study and engage in activities as determined by the academic expectations of the unit.
- c) Attendance is recorded once in each class.
- d) All students can check their attendance via the Student Portal.
- e) If a student would like to discuss their attendance, they can make an appointment to see the relevant Program Manager or Student Counsellor.
- f) Domestic students on Centrelink benefits or using FEE-HELP, are informed during orientation that Curtin College is required by legislation to provide attendance data on request.
- g) If a student:
  - i. misses three consecutive classes; or,
  - ii. is consistently late for classes; or,
  - iii. exits halfway through the class;

the teacher is required to raise this inconsistent behaviour with the relevant Program Manager and the Manager of Academic and Student Services (MASS).

- h) The Manager of Academic and Student Services will:
  - i. log the information on the student's file;
  - ii. send the student a personalised letter:
    - ✓ reminding them of the College's expectations for attendance;
    - ✓ confirming an appointment time to meet with the Student Counsellor to discuss the attendance record; and
    - ✓ confirming that they have been placed on the Student at Risk Register;
  - iii. add the student to the STAR Register; and,
  - iv. inform all relevant staff that the student is officially a 'student at risk' and therefore heightened monitoring is required until further notice.

10.3.2 Learning Contract

- a) Students who have been identified as being 'at risk' will be placed on a learning contract.
- b) The learning contract will set out what is expected of the student and the conditions they must meet to ensure that they remain in 'good standing' and are able to make academic progress.
- c) Conditions and requirements in the Learning Contract may include:
  - i. An agreed reduction in study load inclusive of strict conditions specific to attendance; assessment submission and engagement in class activities;
  - ii. A requirement to attend additional support sessions either with a group of other students or individually at no additional cost to the student; and,

- iii. Daily check in with Student Counsellor or other specified staff member to demonstrate progress on assessments and time management.
- d) In the event the at-risk status is medical in origin, the College will secure the student's informed consent, to consult and liaise with appropriate medical persons and/or organisations such as the student's doctor or medical specialists. Such action is only ever undertaken taken under strict conditions or confidentiality and after gaining the student's informed consent.

10.3.3 Teachers' Approach

- a) No single strategy will work for all students at risk so a combination of teacher-lead strategies inclusive of:
  - i. Provision of asynchronous learning activities in the Learning Management System (LMS) as part of flexible learning model;
  - ii. Recording key sessions for future review and revision;
  - iii. Establishing peer-assisted schemes in each class;
  - iv. Support for structured study groups;
  - v. Recognising and rewarding positive behaviour;
  - vi. Implement scaffolding for complex tasks;
  - vii. Promote self-efficacy – assure students they can be successful;
  - viii. Enable students to relate new information to prior knowledge;
  - ix. Flip the learning and teaching process – engage students in applying knowledge and help them move to higher order thinking;
  - x. Promote pleasure, engagement and enjoyment for all students in the learning environment;
  - xi. Create an orderly and predictable environment for students' help students to set goals as part of self-regulatory their behaviour and learning;
  - xii. Use group work activities effectively and create an environment in which all students feel safe i.e., no bullying, everyone is included, no put downs – humour not sarcasm is the order of the day;
  - xiii. Give instructions orally and visually;
  - xiv. Establish systems for reinforcement;
  - xv. Use diagnostic assessment data to establish where individual students need assistance and support;
  - xvi. Allow students many opportunities for practice and learning;
  - xvii. Implement authentic activities; and,
  - xviii. Assignments must require prior knowledge (see flipped learning).

10.3.4 Student Focused Interventions

10.3.4.1 The College has developed a conceptual model to assist students at risk inclusive of the following peer focused interventions:

- a) Peer Assisted Learning Strategies (PALS) are structured study and learning groups established to create partnerships within each unit of study to enable students to assist each other with course content and collaborative project activities. At the College this is organised to ensure that this reciprocal or two-way learning support process remains mutually beneficial for all students involved. Peer learning groups assist all students in the group to:

- i. work collaboratively in a group setting;
  - ii. learn and contribute to the learning of other members of the group;
  - iii. develop skills in organising and planning learning activities;
  - iv. give and receive feedback in a positive and constructive manner; and,
  - v. evaluate their own learning.

- b) 'Buddy' system is similar to the PALS as noted above but involves pairs of students working together to build skills and confidence and involves students in need of help in certain skills or areas of knowledge being paired with a student from the same class who is going to be able to assist the student by putting their own knowledge into practice. The 'Buddy' system is of course dependent on effective pairing to avoid two weak students being paired, so the College takes great care when determining the pairing of buddies. The 'Buddy' system enables:
  - i. immediate feedback in a way that can lower a student's anxiety;
  - ii. promotes and supports independent learning; and,
  - iii. builds self-confidence

- c) Student Mentors may be used when a student from the same program of study who is in their second or third trimester may be partnered with a student in their first trimester of study. The student mentor provides social as well as academic support for new students and will normally:
  - i. Contact the student either prior to or during the orientation process to enable the student to acclimatise quickly and effectively to 'life as a student at Curtin College;
  - ii. Assist the student mentee to identify with the campus and the services available for support;
  - iii. Discuss difficulties with or concerns about study and assignments; and,
  - iv. Help with non-study related issues and difficulties e.g., with culture or language.

- d) The conceptual model involves considerable overlap in each of the key peer focused intervention strategies to enable students to receive support from peers in a non-threatening or power-driven manner and experience success and achievement. The model is illustrated below in Figure 1:
